Who we are?

We are the community belonging to the Slow Wine Coalition, created with the objective of supporting and promoting small and medium Latin American winegrowers, those who use traditional techniques, and work with respect for the environment, safeguarding the incredible biodiversity of the grape varieties that are part of the region's heritage.

We encourage the exchange of knowledge within the community, providing a platform for individuals, producers, companies and organizations to share ideas and experiences.

We collaborate with other organizations, leveraging shared resources to make a significant impact on the entire wine chain.

Who we are?

The Slow Wine Coalition, part of Slow Food, brings together all stakeholders in the international wine chain, from farmers and winemakers to distributors and sommeliers.

It is an international, inclusive and collaborative network.

Through meetings, workshops, exchanges, fairs and different types of collaborations we work to build a community that can change the world of wine, sip by sip.

WHAT IS SLOW WINE LATAM WEEK?

Slow Wine Latam Week is the moment when we invite everyone to celebrate good, clean and fair wine made in Latin America.

By accompanying the producers of the Slow Wine Latam community and sharing some of their labels, we help them to continue working and making wines that protect rural landscapes, restore biodiversity and promote the socio-cultural growth of their environment.

Through local events organized simultaneously in different parts of the world, we can generate a great impact and send a global message.

WHEN IS IT CELEBRATED?

In this edition we will celebrate it from October 6th to 12th. A whole week to value the good, clean and fair Latin American wine.

FROM OCTOBER 06TH TO 12TH
— 2025 —

WHO CAN CELEBRATE IT?

EVERYONE! Enotecas, restaurants, sommeliers, producers, wineries, professionals and wine lovers are totally invited to celebrate.

HOW CAN I CELEBRATE IT?

You can be as creative as you want. Think about events and activities within your community or space, from tastings by the glass and dinners to debates, winery visits and conversations with producers.

You can also buy and share bottles of slow wine from Latin America.

Do you want to be a sponsor/partner of Slow Wine Latam Week?

The support of each institution or company that is part of the Slow Wine Coalition (Slow Food) network is essential to generate greater impact in the actions and activities we propose.

It helps us organize training sessions and knowledge exchanges for winemakers, tastings and events for consumers and food professionals, and educational events that raise awareness about good, clean and fair wine, fostering collaboration and driving positive change in the wine sector.

By participating in Slow Wine Latam Week, you will have the great opportunity to come into contact with a global network of winemakers, producers, interested consumers, industry professionals, buyers, media and policy makers, and the chance to be inspired by other projects involved.

For this purpose, we offer different sponsorship/partnership formats.

Contact us to confirm your support or explore synergies, be part of Slow Wine Latam Week!
